CELEBRATION SINGERS, TUCKER UMC, GA, June 5, 2008

Worship Committee is in charge of hosting the high school aged choir from Tucker UMC. They will arrive around 4:00 or 4:30pm on 6-5-08. 62 singers are coming: 28 males (24 youth & 4 adults) and 34 women (25 youth & 9 adults). Housing is needed plus a light dinner at 6:00 pm in the Narthex prior to their RUMC performance at 7:00pm in the Fellowship Hall. Peggy will ask all the choirs to sign up to provide their dinner. Heather asked Richard K. if the Men's Group will provide breakfast the next morning; awaiting a reply. Heather put an article in the newsletter asking for homes to sponsor the youth for the night and received few replies. Heather is taking a sign up sheet to the Women's Bible studies, and the housing need will be announced at services.

11:00 Head usher: none

Desserts (especially pies), setup, serving, and clean up assistance are needed. Please sign up on bulletin boards. Sign up sheets were put in the bulletin and some responses were received.

CARRIED AWAY, CANADIAN CHRISTIAN GROUP

Heather is in contact with this group for a possible concert on a Saturday night and Solid Ground worship the next morning. Possible dates are April 27, May 11, or June 15. Arrangements are not going well because of their sound board and lighting needs, plus emails are not being answered.

PARAMENTS

Bob Hayes' family would like to donate a stained glass window for the back of the Sanctuary and request Coralie Parnell create paraments for the pulpit, lectern, and an altar cloth for various liturgical seasons. Heather and Jeff have taken measurements. The Worship Committee was asked to prioritize which seasons are needed first:

- 1) green, possibly 2 different ones because this color is used the majority of the time
- 2) purple for Lent
- 3) blue for Advent
- 4) white for Easter and Epiphany
- 5) red for Pentecost

NEXT MEETING: April 8, 2008, at 7:00pm.

Casey Clarke
